

Kavita Phadke, Director of Talent Development, Bosch

Kavita Phadke is currently Director of Talent Development at Bosch. She has over 11 years of progressive Human Resources experience across multiple positions focused on different aspects of Talent Development and Talent Management. Kavita received her Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the University of California, Davis and her Master's degree in Human Resources Management from the Krannert School of Management at Purdue University.