

Jason A. Tyszko

Vice President, Center for Education and Workforce
U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation

Jason A. Tyszko is vice president at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation where he advances policies and programs that preserve America's competitiveness and enhance the career readiness of youth and adult learners. This includes the Talent Pipeline Management (TPM) initiative—the Foundation's signature workforce development strategy—as well as the Jobs and Employment Data Exchange (JEDx), T3 Innovation Network, and Talent Finance initiative.

Tyszko's prior experience focused on coordinating interagency education, workforce, and economic development initiatives. In 2009, he served as a policy adviser to Illinois Gov. Pat Quinn's administration. In addition, Tyszko was deputy chief of staff and senior policy adviser to the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity.

Tyszko received his Master of Arts from the University of Chicago and his Bachelor of Arts from DePaul University. He is a certified teacher in the state of Illinois.
